

Fund Objective

The fund is diversified across geographic regions, asset classes and fund managers. Its objective is to provide investors with real medium to long-term capital growth from a portfolio that maintains a moderate risk profile.

Fund Strategy

The fund is managed conservatively with an emphasis on capital preservation. The strategy is to blend the asset allocation with our macro views while taking advantage of irrational pricing across all markets and to select the best funds to enhance our views.

Investor Profile

The fund is best suited to investors with a moderate risk profile who require a balanced local and global investment exposure with a conservative bias and capital preservation.

Manager Commentary

The fund had another strong quarter performance taking it's 12 month returns to 13.1%. This was largely driven by the investment in gold shares that from May rallied sharply again. We have subsequently sold our gold position realising good gains. We continue to maintain a large allocation to high yielding income assets.

The Fund continues to be managed conservatively with an emphasis on capital preservation. With our high cash allocation, we are poised to take advantage of global opportunities. We maintain our view that global equity market valuations are still stretched as global economic growth slows. However, we see pockets of value in certain emerging markets including South Africa. As global market uncertainties persist, the Rand will remain vulnerable to fluctuations.

IP Management Company is a member of ASISA. A statement of changes in the composition of the portfolio during the reporting period is available on request. The performance is calculated for the portfolio. The individual investor performance may differ as a result of initial fees, the actual investment date, the date of reinvestment and dividend withholding tax. The fund is invested in portfolios of collective investment schemes that levy their own charges, and which could result in a higher fee structure for the fund of funds.

The portfolio may include foreign investments and the following additional risks may apply: liquidity constraints when selling foreign investments and risk of non-settlement of trades; macroeconomic and political risks associated with the country in which the investment is made; risk of loss on foreign exchange transactions and investment valuation due to fluctuating exchange rates; risk of foreign tax being applicable; potential limitations on availability of market information which could affect the valuation and liquidity of an investment. All of these risks could affect the valuation of an investment in the fund.

The total expense ratio (TER) was incurred as expenses relating to the administration of the financial product. Transaction costs (TC) relate to the buying and selling of the assets underlying the financial product. Total Investment Charge (TIC) is the value of the financial product incurred as costs relating to the investment of the financial product. A higher TER does not necessarily imply a poor return, nor does a low TER imply a good return. The current TER may not necessarily be an accurate indication of future TER's. Transaction Costs are a necessary cost in administering the financial product and impacts the financial product returns. It should not be considered in isolation as returns may be impacted by many other factors over time such as market returns, the type of financial product, the investment decisions of the investment manager and the TER.
